

ANDHRA PRADESH AGRICULTURAL UNIVERSITY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Andhra Pradesh Agricultural University Teachers Association was formed and registered vide registration number 1224/78 with its Head Quarters located at Rajendranagar, Hyderabad. Later the association was renamed as Acharya N.G. Ranga Agricultural University Teachers Association after the renaming of the university on 7th November, 1996 in honour of Acharya N.G. Ranga an eminent Parliamentarian, Kisan leader and educationist of Andhra Pradesh. Later post bifurcation of Acharya N.G. Ranga Agricultural University, the Association Head Quarters shifted from Rajendranagar to Lam, Guntur w.e.f 26-01-2016. The Association was formed with an objective of

- To inculcate unity of purpose and self reliance among the members towards united efforts in solving their problems.
- To develop a spirit de corps and to promote professional interest of members.
- To advance and safeguard the welfare, dignity and integrity of the profession, by timely representations, organising seminars, conventions and meetings as may be deemed necessary.
- To improve professional efficiency with a view to contributing to the integrated rural development through teaching, research and extension, and
- To conduct such other activities as may be decided upon by the Association from time to time.
